The Galeon 400 FLY provides unrivaled entertainment space for a yacht in its class. Innovative side balconies on either side of the cockpit fold out to create massive amounts of room for onboard luxuriation. And the interior is just as impressive, with floor-to-ceiling windows that lower electrically, allowing guests to indulge in soothing sea breezes to the fullest extent. And above it all, on the flybridge, the captain enjoys unimpeded lines of sight, while guests savor the wind-in-your-hair excitement of an open ride while underway.
